14. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- 14.24 To be eligible to vote at the League's Annual General Meeting, all accounts of a league club, to 30 September of the current financial year, must be paid by 4:00pm on the day of the Annual General Meeting. A club may be eligible to vote if a structured repayment arrangement has been agreed with the Committee of Management.

- (i) Signatories to club accounts must not be in a relationship that potentially compromises the security of club funds. Club account signatories must be submitted to the league each year.

- 14.25 Clubs who have outstanding invoices at the start of the season will not receive their football allocation until all payments have been received. Should the amount remain outstanding for more than one month into the season the league have the right to deduct points from the club.
